

In Celebration of National Business Women's Week

You are cordially invited to attend the 2008 Young Careerist Dessert Reception on Thursday, October 16, 2008, at 6:30pm in Van Dusen Commons on the Alma College campus, hosted by the Alma Area Business & Professional Women's Organization. The Honorable Michelle M. Rick, Judge for the 29th Judicial Circuit Court will present the keynote address.

Each year the Alma Area Business & Professional Women present the Young Careerist Award to a deserving woman who has demonstrated leadership in her chosen profession and has contributed service to her community. This year we have four nominees for this award:

- Sarah Bartlett, Licensed Funeral Director with Smith Family Funeral Homes
- Bobbie Brown, Closer/Marketing Rep for Alma Abstract
- Kristie Hancock, Teacher at Alma Public Schools
- Kendra Overla, Lieutenant at Alma Police Department

The winner of the 2008 Young Careerist Award will be announced on Oct 16th. As a fellow business and professional person we hope you will attend an evening of celebration, networking, and support for business & professional women in our community.

BPW meets the second Wednesday evening of each month, September through June. BPW has been active in the community since 1946, annually hosting the Reality Store for all area eighth graders, and the Princess Ball. The club also supports Women's Aid Shelter, Reach to Recovery, Adopt-a-Highway, Salvation Army, Career Closet and provides a scholarship to an Alma College student.

Sincerely,

Connie L. Katt, Chairperson
Young Careerist Committee, BPW
